Hey, Eric Medemar here

Are you happy with your life right now?

If you could wave a magic wand over your life and change anything what would it be?

- Would you want more time with your family?
- Would you want a different job?
- Would you change your financial life?
- Would you lose 200 lbs by having your spouse disappear completely....Be nice?

The Good News and the Bad News

I have some good news and some bad....Which do you want to hear first? Okay, I agree we've all heard our fair share of bad news lately, so let's go with the good.

The good news is I want to give you that magic wand....No, it's not a free gift with my real estate system either. In fact I'm going to give you the wand completely free.

Okay, now it's time to share the bad news :(

The bad news is you've had the magic wand all along....Yep, all this time you've been whining about how $hitty life has been (at least part of the time)....and you could have simply been waving your magic wand....And just as simple as abra, cadabra....Poof, your life could have been improved.

Okay, I'll admit, the magic wand is a bit hard to find....But, it's been there all along.

Finding Your Magic Wand!

Not to jump off topic, but....I'm going to jump off topic (sort of)....

What do you think of that weirdo David Blane....Is it really magic to freeze yourself in a block of ice?

Last time I checked....Freezing yourself in a block of ice wasn't magic....It was STUPID.

Anyway, Back to the subject..

Do you have any guesses what the life changing magic wand could be?

Decisions, Decisions, Decisions.

Yes, the life changing magic wand is simply the decisions that you make.

Do you want to change your financial life from “Broke as a Joke” to “Healthy and Wealthy”? Then grab your “Decision Wand” and start using it.

Okay, maybe you wanna see proof that the Decision Wand works before you try to use it...After all, magic isn't real....So how could some silly decision wand be real?

Okay....hmmmm....I know a lot about real estate, so let's use that as an example...I bet you didn't see that coming. LOL

Let's Hop In the “Terrible Time” Machine

Let's go back to a few years to 2001. I was a newly married man.....Married to the woman of my dreams. My new bride was sweet, gorgeous, and hard working....It sounds real cool right?

Wrong!!!!

My gorgeous new bride and I were drowning while trying to keep our heads above water.

Here I was, a new college graduate, who could not even afford to buy groceries....I was borrowing money from my Mom....Of course, I told my wife I made the money doing some “Side work” LOL....Luckily my mom was cool enough to let me keep a smidgen of my pride.

My wife wanted me to get a “Real Job” and stop toying around with this “real estate thing”, as she so eloquently put it.

I don't know if you have heard of this “Real Job” thing....But, I heard it really sucks.

My wife actually wanted me to find one of these jobs where I had to trade hours for dollars....

Not to mention...From what I could tell.

I would need to get outta bed when I didn't want to..

Kiss some stupid bosses a$$ that I hated.

And worst of all.

I would never have a chance at owning a convertible black Corvette, a Harley, a Boat, or a Lexus....Because I would be barely scraping by doing something that I hated.

The Magic Decision Wand

It was do or die....

My Magic Decision Wand was making its first major appearance....

I had a choice....I could leave my Magic Decision Wand buried away and just hop on board the: “Life sucks, then you die” train....

Or, I could whip out my Decision Wand and give it a whirl....

Thank God, I used my Decision Wand.....Otherwise you wouldn't be reading this today.

I Waved My Wand

Sure my wand isn't very big....Whoops I forgot we were talking about my Decision Wand.

Anyway, it is in moments of decision that your destiny is shaped.

Had I chose to do the predictable thing and give in to my wife's request, my life would be completely different....

Instead of waking up excited to go to work, at a job I love....I could have been waking up to an annoying alarm and loathing every last minute of the day....

Instead of riding to work in my convertible Vette....Oh, whoops I don't go to work....I just drive around and look at houses all day....

To make a long story short....If I wouldn't have used my Decision Wand, my life would basically SUCK right now....

Okay, maybe it wouldn't suck completely....but, I know it wouldn't be nearly as fun

And in the end....It's all about the fun.

How Bout You?

As you think about your life...What decisions can you make today that could magically shape your tomorrows?

As you think about your past....Can you remember some pivotal times where you forgot to use your Decision Wand?

While your imagining the future.....What does it feel like to know that it's all up to you, God (or whoever you follow), and the Decision Wand?

How Can Eric Sell Me Something

Once again at least I'm honest....

For real though....Real Estate Investing may or may not be part of your ideal future.

If it isn't, then use your Decision Wand right now and get started on whatever could make your tomorrows better than today.

If you would like real estate investing to be a part of your "Ideal Future" then I would encourage you to start with wholesaling.

Why Wholesaling?

Well, I've already proven to you that wholesaling is the ONLY No Risk, No Credit, No Cash needed way, to make limitless profits in real estate.

We've already agreed that since theirs NO RISK your chances of success more than triple...

So what more can I really say without coming right out and saying.....

“Buy my stuff if you want to get started now by clicking here.... or wait around for the next 60 days in hopes of piecing together my short lessons”

In any case....Make today the day your Wand stays out forever....

No, not that wand silly, nobody wants to see that. LOL

Till next time!

Eric Medemar

P.S. Keep your eyes peeled for our next issue, where I will be teaching my 6 step process of tearing through wholesale deals...
